

Emergency Situations

Whether we like it or not, we can sometimes find ourselves in emergency situations. Knowing how to respond to these situations is absolutely vital, and the information outlined below is a great place to start.

The Band of Mercy

The Band of Mercy is composed of those souls who were once Earthbound, and who have donated their time in the Light to help others in similar situations. In extreme emergencies, when you are only able to call upon the Band of Mercy, they have the authority to remove demonic entities. For all non-emergency situations involving the demonic, you would refer to Archangel Michael and his legions.

If you are suddenly hit with sadness, anxiety, or any emotions or thoughts that are not yours, you should call upon the Band of Mercy as follows:

I would please ask the Band of Mercy to remove whatever is attached to me now in the name of Jesus Christ and do whatever they deem necessary with them and I thank thee.

Archangel Michael

Archangel Michael and his legions have absolute authority over the demonic. If you see dark figures, or you feel afraid, or you feel that your situation is demonic, you should call upon Archangel Michael and his legions.

I would please ask the Archangel Michael and his Legions to remove all demonic entities, energies and influences, that are affecting, influencing or attached to me and all I have domain over now, in the name of Jesus Christ and place them into the appropriate protected sanctuary and I thank thee.

Commanding in the name of Jesus Christ

If you are being pestered by the demonic, if you have intruding thoughts, or if you feel irrationally afraid, it's best to command whatever is bothering you out using the following formula

I command thee to leave now, in the name of Jesus Christ.

Silver, Mirrored Egg

A mirrored egg works as a reflective barrier when you are being sent negative energy.

To use, you should visualize a silver, mirrored egg that totally encompasses you. There should be Christed white light inside, and the outside should be mirrored on the outside. If you're not the best at visualization, you can use the following prayer:
I would please ask the Band of Mercy to put into place a silver, mirrored egg around myself that is mirrored on the outside, and filled with Christed light and Christed truth, and I ask this to be done now in the name of Jesus Christ and I thank thee.

This lasts 12 hours.

If somebody is sending you witchcraft, like curses, spells or conjurations, or even just really negative directed thoughts, you can place them in an egg that is filled with Christed light and is mirrored on the inside and outside. This will turn their witchcraft on them, which tends to be a good lesson for them. This also lasts 12 hours.

Pink Bubble

A pink bubble is effective for toxic, negative, mean people in your life. It might be an over demanding boss, a friend with a bad temper, a bullying spouse or a coworker who constantly undermines you. It can also help deter an impending argument if you use it quickly enough. Pink is the color of pure love, and will calm someone down if you place him or her in it. You do not have to have their permission to place them inside a pink bubble.

To use, you should visualize a light pink bubble completely surrounding the person in question. Bubblegum and cotton candy pink are good colors to keep in mind during this visualization. If you're not the best at visualization, you can use the following prayer:

I would please ask the Band of Mercy to put into place a bubblegum pink bubble around (the person in question) now in the name of Jesus Christ and I thank thee.

This lasts 12 hours.

Golden Bubble

Golden bubbles tend to make you less noticeable to those around you. People tend to avert the energy, and this can protect you in potentially unsafe areas, and can protect your home and property while you are gone.

To use, you should visualize a subdued golden bubble completely surrounding you (or your home and property). Don't think about shiny gold, as shiny gold will actually draw attention to you. If you're not the best at visualization, you can use the following prayer:

I would please ask the Band of Mercy to put into place a subdued golden bubble around myself (or my home and property) now in the name of Jesus Christ and I thank thee.

This lasts 12 hours.
